Regional events are planned, hosted, and run by the regional office in collaboration with the NFTY-NE regional board and other teen leadership. All events are open to 9th-12th graders, with the exception of Spring Conclavette and Leadership Kallah (open to 8th-12th graders). Questions about regional events should be directed to lking@urj.org.

Subregional events are owned by individual congregations or teens but supported by the region. These events can be open to the entire region or to a specific geographic area. Questions about these events should be directed to those hosting congregations. Any congregations interested in hosting a subregional event should contact lking@urj.org.
